PROJECT GOALS:

Explain three goals you plan to accomplish, learn, or achieve while completing this market project. Goals may be specific to the care of your animal, management of your herd, performance in shows, or personal growth as a result of what you've learned. List goals that are specific and measurable.

GOAL #1:
GOAL #2:
GOAL #3:

PROJECT ANIMAL INVENTORY (ASSETS):

List all the animals you own at the beginning of the project year and add any animal(s) you purchase, lease, or are born to your animal during this project year. All animals have value, even if you did not purchase them. Please only list animals which are part of your PCYF project.

PROJECT PHOTOGRAPHS:

Show the beginning and progression of your project using a minimum of 4 and a maximum of 8 colored photographs. Include captions (in complete sentences) for each picture. Captions and pictures should reflect on skills you have learned or important aspects of caring for your animal. When writing captions, explain what you are doing in the pictures and describe why you are doing it. Use correct spelling, grammar, punctuation, and neatness.

PROJECT STORY:

Your story is an important part of your project experience! Discuss reasons for selecting this project (breed, cost, experience, interests, etc) and how you came to show this particular animal(s). Describe the kind of work you did each day/week/month in caring for your animal(s). Share some of the new knowledge and skills you learned, and explain your project plans for the future. What went well? What would you improve upon? How do you hope to grow or change your project? Include stories or any other information about your experience that you find applicable. Use proper spelling, grammar, punctuation, and neatness. You may type or write your story and include additional pages if necessary.
